Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Robert McBride on September 7, 2006.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the Claims:

Claims 104-111 (canceled).

On page 1, line 1 of the specification:

This is a divisional of Application No. 10/036,770, now U.S. Patent No. 6,733,626, filed December 21, 2001, ~~allowed January 5, 2004~~, incorporated herein by reference.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-68, 113, and 114 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art does not disclose or suggest an embossing system for embossing and perforating a web comprising two embossing rolls having embossing elements which define perforate nips and wherein at least a portion of the perforate nips are substantially oriented in the cross-machine direction. The prior art lacks teaching or suggestion for providing the perforate nips and/or orienting the perforate nips in the cross-machine direction.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed August 23, 2006 have been fully considered and are persuasive. Reference is made to the interview with Applicant's representative on July 14, 2006. Accordingly, the rejection of claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) based on the combination of Hepford et al (US 3,940,529) and Schutte et al (US Re.27,453) has been withdrawn. It is recognized that these references are directed to orienting perforating nips in the machine direction to provide advantages taught therein.
